Go Deeper

Tension. There is so much in the news, on social media, in relationships, and I realized tonight... tension is in my home. The last couple nights, I have felt an unbearable heaviness on my chest, and both nights, my husband and I have been at odds with each other. Tonight, I decided to do our daughter's bedtime routine without my phone on me. As I watched her splash and giggle in the bath, I felt an overwhelming love. Recently, my eyes have been consumed by the strife of news and social media and missing what God is doing through this time.

In the story of Mary & Martha, Martha was so busy and distracted by all the things she needed to do while Mary sat at the feet of Jesus (Luke 10:38-40). When Martha was incredibly bothered by this, Jesus said to Martha, “you are worried and upset about many things, but few things are needed – or indeed only one. Mary has chosen what is better, and it will not be taken away from her” (Luke 10:41-42).

As you read this, I don't know where you're at right now, but I would venture to say you feel some sort of tension. It hit me like a bag of bricks when I realized I hadn't truly looked in my daughter's eyes today, much less my husband's. As we continue to stay informed, let us see everyone and everything through the eyes of Jesus. (Jaden Duncan)
