

Table Group Weekly Experience

November 8, 2020

Mixer

What is the weirdest, most random fact you happen to know?

'Neighborly' - Daily Devotional

1. In Pastor Harry's Tuesday 11/3 entry, The Choice, he tells of a fella who said, "My wife 'put' me in a bad mood!" How often do you say that? What is really happening when you make a statement like this? How could you own your emotions and be a 'team' influencer, and when will you start?

'Strongest You' - Mike Foster

1. In Episode 6 (11.5.20), Mike teaches about where perfectionism comes from and how these messages get locked in. What insight did you gain from considering the four points of how perfectionism undermines your life? Where would you like to change?
2. Mike gave us two phrases to use for breaking down perfectionism, and he also suggested that we live with grace and forgiveness too. In what ways can we release our perfectionist tendencies in our relationship with God? How can He help us get off the "hamster wheel" of perfection with Him, with ourselves, and with others?

'Forever You' Sermon - Jared Herd

Scripture: Galatians 5:22-23; Matthew 20:13-15

1. Why does Jesus teach that generosity is better than fairness? Where in your life are you cultivating fairness and other bad fruit? What good fruits are beginning to "pop" out as you pursue a life "on earth as it is in heaven" - did you think these would ever be possible?

2. How is God stirring you to be the kind of “good person” that not only looks good on the inside, but you taste good on the outside too?

3. Pastor Jared asked us: Aren’t you glad that God decided not to treat us as we deserve, but He decided to treat us better than we deserve?
What are some ways that Kingdom-you can be better to the non-Kingdom-world you will inevitably bump into this week ?

Live It Out

Pastor Jared challenged us to do some work on the side of our personalities that is concerned with the moral drama of our lives - not what you do with your life but how you do with your life that really matters. This week, spend some quiet time making your “To Be Goals” list. What kind of person do you want to be? What would you want people to say about you at your funeral some day? Ask God what His design for you is and ask Him to join you - and resource you - on this journey.
