

EASTER WEEKEND

When Heaven Meets Earth

Pastor Jared Herd

April 15 & 16, 2017

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. When was the last time you had to adjust to a new normal? What was the process like?

2. Do you usually embrace change willingly or do you like routine and the familiar? Why do you think that's how you are?

3. Take a look at Hebrews 9:11-15. Before Christ's death and resurrection, what was the old way of getting right with God?

What did Pastor Jared tell us the layout of the temple in Jerusalem was like? What separated the people of God from God's presence, physically and spiritually?

4. What does it mean that in Jesus Christ, heaven meets earth? How would you explain this to someone else?

5. The seven different signs we've been talking about share some similarities. What are they?

How does each sign speak to the spiritual needs we all have and Christ's sole ability to meet them?

6. Read 1 Corinthians 6:19-20 and 1 Peter 2:4-5. What do these verses say about us?

What do they have to do with Christ's resurrection?

7. What does it mean to you that as a believer in Christ, you're now the place where heaven meets earth?

How does/should that affect your everyday life?

8. Pastor Jared said we are Easter people living in a Good Friday world. What did he mean?

How are we to live then?

MEMORIZE Romans 8:38-39 – "Do you not know that your bodies are temples of the Holy Spirit, who is in you, whom you have received from God? You are not your own; you were bought at a price. Therefore honor God with your bodies."

CRB CORE VALUE THOUGHT: Living your life as an Easter person in a world that needs a savior is how you reach outward to others with the saving love of Jesus Christ. By the way you live. This week, consider who in your midst you can be an Easter person to in a tangible way. Pray for an opportunity to interact with that person and then be ready to respond.
